BOX 101

Box101 Class

International Paper conducts Box101 classes annually at our Customer Commitment Center in Aurora, IL. This 2 day interactive training session is an introductory course to help you better understand how paper that is made from a renewable resource is created and transformed into products people depend on every day.

You interact directly with our subject matter experts, our products and tour a production plant in order to obtain new insights of the boxes we supply your company and customers. Our instructors have developed a very engaging and hands-on approach to ensure you gain the most from your time in our class.

2023 Box 101 dates in Aurora, IL:

- April 18-19
- June 20-21
- October 3-4
 - All tuition, materials, on-site meals are provided by IP along with a group dinner on the first night of the session
 - Participants are responsible for their own travel, hotel and transportation
- To register, please contact your International Paper sales representative.
